Treasurer's report accepted as read, motion by: John Malcolm, 2nd by: Ira Lessman, Motion carried.

Old Business: Discussed getting the tickets for the 50/50 drawing. It was suggested getting 3 different colored tickets. Also discussed what time we would want to draw the tickets. After discussion, John Malcolm made a motion to draw the 50/50 each evening at 8 PM on Friday and Saturday and at 2 PM on Sunday, 2nd by: Ira Lessman, Motion carried. It was decided to charge $1.00 a piece or 6 for $5.00. It was suggested that Denis Heggenstaller should announce the amount of the 50/50 throughout the day.

Discussed the old web-site. John Malcolm read the sites report and it has had 1006 hits this month.

Discussed playing the National Anthem before the show. After discussion, Mahlon Boop made a motion to play the National Anthem each day at 9:00 AM, 2nd by Dawn Betz, Motion carried.

Discussed Denis Heggenstaller and his announcing. It was suggested that he should announce more throughout the day. It was also suggested that he should have a schedule to follow of what is going on throughout the day.

Discussed the Selinsgrove Street Fair. The application deadline is June 13th.

Discussed the occasional use agreement and the permanent use agreement. Both agreements were read and discussed. It was decided to discuss further at the next membership meeting.

Our fall show ad has been placed in the Daily Item's "100 Things To Do" book again this year.

The Susquehanna River Valley Visitor Bureau's Summer Festivities Brochure is now out and we have an ad placed in that as well.

Sire Advertising is now taking care of placing all of our magazine ads for us.

New Business: There was no new business discussed.

Unfinished Business: New lighting in the barn, doing a tractor run, the tent at the food building, doing a Halloween event and parking at the Christmas Banquet in 2011.

At 8:28 PM, John Malcolm made a motion to adjourn, 2nd by Dawn Betz, Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted by Michael Clark, Secretary
